You get out of it what you put into it, especially where prosperity is concerned. Part of the success formula for Jeremiah Program alumnae Salome meant her daughter Iris was going to be a college graduate.

“Not going to college was not an option,” says Iris, who is now a senior at Saint Catherine’s University in Saint Paul, Minn.

Taking after her mom, a first-generation college graduate, Iris is tenacious and ambitious, taking college credits throughout high school with a goal to graduate from college in four years.

She’s double majoring in Business Management and Social Work while working full time as an assistant manager at Chipotle. Iris is true to her word, and she is planning to graduate on her own timetable.

“The dean of academics told me, ‘You’re not going to be able to double major and graduate in four years,’” Iris recalls of their first meeting. “I said ‘Okay, but I’m going to do it.’”

Both mom and daughter credit Jeremiah for instilling drive and determination for their success through education. A career-track education was part of the secret sauce that turned Salome’s life around after she became one of the first participants in Jeremiah Program nearly two decades ago.

“It wasn’t easy, it was very hard,” said Salome. “There’s no way I could have done it without Jeremiah Program. As cliché or corny as it sounds, it’s true. There’s no way. Even now at forty, with a great career and my own place, it’s still really hard being a single mom. It was such a gift. You reap the benefits for the rest of your life, and your children’s lives.”

“There’s no way I could have done it without Jeremiah Program ... It was such a gift. You reap the benefits for the rest of your life, and your children’s lives.”
Family, faith and determination

Family, faith and determination: these three tenets have defined Victoria’s journey. A single mom to her son, Dominic, she describes Jeremiah as the catalyst to transforming her life. “Looking back I never thought I could be where I am today. Jeremiah changed that. Everything that’s hard is worth fighting for. Before coming to Jeremiah, I was homeless, sleeping on floors, and taking buses in the rain with my baby. I fought my way here. I knew it was where I was supposed to be.”

During her two and half years at Jeremiah, her son Dominic has thrived in the Early Childhood Education Center (CDC), moving from infant, to toddler and now to the young preschool room. Victoria credits the CDC teachers for challenging Dominic and readying him for kindergarten and beyond.

Victoria’s family has always supported her, especially her grandmother and brother. Her brother spoke about Victoria at her recent graduation from Jeremiah, giving her credit for the hard work she has put in toward her Dental Office Support Certificate and the perseverance it takes to create a different life for her and Dominic.

Faith carries Victoria through difficult times, helps create lasting bonds with other Jeremiah moms and even helps her co-parent with Dominic’s father and stepmother. “It’s all for our son,” she said. “We want to be better as a family for Dominic.”

Victoria has many aspirations for the future, including going back to school, perhaps for her teaching license. “My heart has always been with kids,” she says. “Doors are opening for me to work in a school.”

Victoria is strong, resilient and surrounded by an incredible support system of family, friends, Jeremiah staff and fellow residents. She has big goals, the foundation and tools to get her there and the hope and perseverance to carry her, and Dominic, forward.
First Graduate of Jeremiah Program Fargo-Moorhead

After four years of studying and tests, (Olivia Foss) is starting as a nurse in Sanford Health’s oncology department. “I think being a mom is probably the hardest job—the best, but definitely the hardest and most rewarding,” she said while playing with son Leo after a day at Rasmussen College. She’s one of the first moms to graduate from college among those living at the Fargo-Moorhead Jeremiah Program campus in south Fargo.

Single mothers often face major financial challenges that can impede degree completion, with childcare costs topping the list. While single mothers work in addition to attending school, it can negatively impact grades with less time devoted to studying.

But Foss found more time to study when she moved into the Jeremiah Program campus. Prior to this, she was living on her own and working full time to afford rent and childcare.

“Since living here I didn’t have to work full-time, I just work part-time. Reducing my hours really helped me focus more on school,” she said. “And just having the support of the program—Leo loves the day care, he loves the school.”

Foss was initially hesitant about applying for Jeremiah Program. Her sister, Whitney Wright, worked as the program’s event and volunteer manager, so Foss found herself volunteering before going through a 12-week empowerment course that’s required before moving in.

“I felt like there were more people who needed this who don’t have a support system,” Foss said. “Living here has shown me it’s about having a safe place to live and building relationships with more moms going through the same thing. Our circumstances might not be the same, but we’re in the same place.”
We are pleased to share some national highlights from this past year. Thanks to your support, we:

» Completed a new five-year strategic plan with the goal to impact 4X more mothers and children by 2023.

» Hosted a 20/20 Vision Summit in Minneapolis, convening more than 300 people to share challenges and best practices for transforming families two generations at a time.

» Formed a Diversity, Equity, and Inclusion Advisory Council of diverse Jeremiah staff, board members, and graduates to ensure voices from across the organization are valued and reflective of our communities.

» Developed a new organization-wide evaluation framework to track more outcomes for Jeremiah families, guide program design, and pave the way for a robust external impact evaluation.

» Celebrated the grand opening of our new Fargo-Moorhead campus, which houses 20 furnished apartments and a licensed child development center to support families while mother and child attend school.

» Raised 90% of our capital campaign goal to break ground on a new campus in Rochester-Southeast MN and began serving our first families through our signature empowerment training.

Program Pillars

1. Career-track college education
2. Quality early childhood education
3. Safe, affordable housing
4. Empowerment & life skills training
5. Supportive community

Our Mission

End the cycle of poverty for single mothers and their children two generations at a time.
Moms remained on track to reach their goals by cumulatively participating in 3,075 coaching sessions.

The larger community showed their support for Jeremiah by contributing more than 24,000 volunteer hours.

Partnered with 638 women & children in six cities across the United States in a variety of program services.

82% of children enrolled in our child development centers demonstrated age-appropriate development.

55% of moms achieved a GPA of 3.0 or higher.

90 new moms set their families on a path to success by completing empowerment training.
The Visionary Circle recognizes extraordinary levels of cumulative giving.

“My son and I have built a great foundation at Jeremiah Program, and he will know that anything is possible after seeing what I’ve been through.”

– Deja, Jeremiah mom
In 2018, we partnered with 105 women and children in Austin, pre-admissions through graduation. Most moms attended Austin Community College (ACC), located within easy walking distance of families’ homes. ACC has been a committed partner since we began serving families in 2013, working closely with Jeremiah staff to ensure moms are supported in their degree programs. Several moms are also attending Texas State University and the University of Texas.

We partnered with United Way of Greater Austin in 2018 with the goal of integrating the 2Gen approach throughout our entire community. The City of Austin/Travis County is the first metropolitan area in the country to develop a 2Gen Strategic Plan that uses social services as a mechanism for promoting economic mobility for both generations of a family.

Innovative model using partnerships for early childhood education and housing with a target to serve 150 families by 2022.

With your generous support, we:

Celebrated

5 moms earning their associate's degree, all of whom continued on to pursue a bachelor’s degree

47% of moms achieving a GPA of 3.0 or higher

Partnered with

50 women and children in Boston, pre-admissions through graduation

Enrolled

96% of children in an accredited education program

Received

900 hours of hands-on support from our committed volunteers

“Jeremiah Program is the foundation for my family’s overall wellness. Because of the support we receive, we are able to succeed.”

– Kaisha, Jeremiah mom
Our innovative program continued to grow in 2018 as we focused on building community among 22 Jeremiah families and preparing for future growth. Program Evaluation & Research Group (PERG) completed an evaluation of our new approach to service delivery in Boston, concluding that it is cost-effective and scalable for a large population.

Using PERG’s findings as a blue print for growth, we completed a new strategic plan, with a goal to serve 150 families annually by 2022. We are incredibly grateful to Wellington Management Foundation for their initial investment in our expansion through a $200,000 Catalyst grant.
Residential campus with 20 furnished apartments, on-site child development center and more.

With your generous support, we:

Partnered with 44 women & children in Fargo-Moorhead, pre-admissions through graduation

Provided safe, affordable housing for 18 families

Raised $89,000 during Giving Hearts Day, doubling the amount raised in 2017

Celebrated 64% of moms achieving a GPA of 3.0 or higher

Provided quality early learning for 18 children from these residential families through our new on-site child development center

“I have grown so much as a person already and I am so happy to be in a program that has put my son and me on a better path. I feel like I finally have a fresh start and a place to call home.”

– Kristie, Jeremiah Program mom
2018 was a landmark year as we celebrated the grand opening of our new residential campus and began moving families into safe, affordable housing. We reached 90% occupancy by the end of the year and established an endowment through the generous support of prominent local donors.

The Fargo-Moorhead community has welcomed Jeremiah with open arms – more than 500 volunteers contributed 2,500 hours in 2018. In their recent plan to end homelessness, the North Dakota Interagency Council on Homelessness cited Jeremiah Program Fargo-Moorhead as an example of the kind of successful strategies needed to end generational poverty.
Jeremiah’s first residential campuses with a total of 77 furnished apartments, on-site child development centers and more.

“I am in awe and proud of the life I have created for my son and me. I am filled with joy to be living the life I now get to live. I have broken the cycle in so many ways, and my son is a living example of that. He is growing up feeling loved, valued, safe and empowered. Jeremiah helped me see that and I taught him that myself.”

– Brittany, Jeremiah graduate

With your generous support, we:

Provided safe, affordable housing to 100 families

Welcomed 39 new families to our Twin Cities campuses

Celebrated 9 moms graduating with postsecondary degrees

Celebrated 55% of moms achieving a GPA of 3.0 or higher

Continued partnering with Greater Minneapolis Crisis Nursery to provide on-site mental health services to moms and train staff in a trauma-informed model of care
In 2018, we partnered with 382 women and children in the Twin Cities. In our early childhood education centers, 82% of our children were at or above age-appropriate development benchmarks. Surveyed graduate moms left Jeremiah Program earning an average of $22.25/hour ($46,280/year).

We welcomed our new Executive Director, La Juana Whitmore, in July, who brings a wealth of both business and nonprofit experience. Thanks to a group of volunteer consultants from Optum, we redesigned our life skills programming with direct input from Jeremiah moms, including a new curriculum covering topics mothers find most relevant to their day-to-day lives.

Newest progressive model combining residential and partner models for early childhood education and housing.

With your generous support, we:

Ensured all children accessed high-quality early learning through an ongoing partnership with SCO Family of Services

Helped 8 moms from our first empowerment group enroll in Medgar Evers College

Held a second round of empowerment training for a new group of 10 moms

Facilitated community service opportunities for families

Established a Community Board of Trustees

“My favorite part of the program is the empowerment courses. It taught me that I can change; if I don’t like my circumstances, I can change it. I also liked the fact that it was like group therapy where we can share in a judgment-free space.”

– Domenique, Jeremiah mom
In 2018, we grew our presence in the Brownsville neighborhood of Brooklyn, partnering with 39 women and children in the community and building strong relationships with local organizations serving single-mother families.

Wilder Research recently completed an external evaluation of our New York program, projecting up to an 11:1 Return on Investment for Jeremiah mothers and children in Brownsville. Given this potential for radical impact, we completed a new strategic plan that focuses on dramatically increasing the number of families we serve and continuing to build innovative community partnerships.

Offered families holistic support through
- 165 individual coaching sessions

Established
- a Community Board of Trustees

Began serving families, with
- 8 women participating in our first round of empowerment training

Received
- 1,680 hours of hands-on support from our committed volunteers

“If it weren’t for Jeremiah, I would be jobless and homeless. The drive to change my life and my daughter’s life is so strong now. I now think every day, ‘I can, I am, and I will!’”

– Kayla, Jeremiah Program mom
2018 was a tremendous year of growth for our Rochester-Southeast MN program. Unprecedented city, county, state, corporate, private and faith-based philanthropic support has raised all but $1.25M of our total $16.2M Capital Campaign goal and launched programming to our first group of families.

Together we are doing something wonderful that acting alone we could not. We are on track to break ground in 2019 on a 65,000 square foot campus with 40-units of safe, affordable housing and more. Our on-site child development center will offer Head Start and Early Head Start for 64 young children through a partnership with Families First of Minnesota.
