

2024 IMPACT REPORT

“I believe that my children deserve to experience life, to learn new things, to do things that I’ve never had the opportunity to do.”

—JP BOSTON MOM

2024 was another impactful year for JP Boston, thanks to supporters like you. Excitingly, we celebrated six moms who earned either their associate or bachelor’s degree and launched a Mommy + Me PlaySpace, which offers moms a productive environment where they can work on school-related tasks while their children engage in educational activities. While our work is far from finished, let’s take a moment to pause and celebrate the work we accomplished together on behalf of single moms, their children, and our entire Boston community.
